Promoting Civic Engagement and Community Organizing. We are a nonprofit incubator and social change accelerator. We believe in the power of grassroots community organizations and work with new projects and initiatives to determine their best path forward. Side Project provides fiscal sponsorship, management and grant support for new and innovative projects focused on progressive social change. We help social change agents and groups implement new programs, bring together groups to collaborate on an issue, and test new approaches to social change. Fiscal sponsorship is a common mechanism used in the nonprofit sector that enables individuals and organizations to start new programs without establishing a new, separate nonprofit organization. In 2019, we worked alongside several initiatives focused on creating more inclusive and welcoming communities, including those who were implementing new programs, collaborating across sectors on issues, and testing out new approaches to social change. Our projects cross many fields in the nonprofit sector and have strong, capable leadership with a variety of small to large operations. Some of our projects are as follows: Pittsburgh Center for Autistic Advocacy (PCAA) works to improve the lives of Autistic people and seeks to advance the equity of Autistic people in all realms of life. In 2019, Side Project provided over 3500 hours of pro bono and low bono one-on-one support to hundreds of nonprofits and would-be nonprofit organizations (with budgets less than $5,000,000) in Pennsylvania and Florida. Additionally, we provided on-going low bono and pro bono legal, community organizing, and operational support to more than 35 small, grassroots nonprofits focused on social justice issues. In addition to technical assistance, we also published the Pro Bono Publico blog that helps community organizers and nonprofit executive directors to understand the state
